-- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --

The MusicDish Network to Provide Saturated Online Exposure for Mellani Day's Sophomore Release "Mostly True" "Mostly True," co-produced by renowned jazz pianist Eric Gunnison and featuring her band Dazed, consists of original jazz vocal-centric tunes that range from smooth jazz & blues to reggae & calypso.

New York, New York, July 14, 2006 - MusicDish, an Internet music magazine publisher and artist marketing/development firm, is proud to announce the addition of Jazz singer Mellani Day to the MusicDish Network roster. Combining a variety of online viral marketing strategies, the MusicDish Network will be coordinating a broad campaign in support of her debut full-length release "Mostly True." Co-produced by renowned jazz pianist Eric Gunnison, and featuring her band Dazed, "Mostly True" consists of original jazz vocal-centric tunes that range from smooth jazz & blues to reggae & calypso.

Available August 8, the 12 tracks album includes Billboard honorable mentions "True Love" and "Progress" as well as a bluesy version of Huey Lewis' hit, "I Want a New Drug!" The MusicDish Network will conduct an extensive saturated marketing campaign, combining PR/brand development, syndicated marketing and online street teaming. In addition, Mellani and her band will be aggressively pushed on social networking sites such as MySpace, Live Digital and TagWorld.

Joining Mellani on the "Mostly True" CD are members from the Dazed Band including Jamie Krutz, guitar and electric violin; Michael Willis, bass; Keith Whiting, Drums; on selected tracks Sky Canyon, vibes and congas; Phil Garcia, guitar; Bob Rebholz, sax; and Dirk Mewes on the bonus track playing the Uilleann bagpipe and a whistle made out of a ski pole.

Mellani's previous three song EP, 'Shy to Sure,' was greeted with rave reviews. Two of the songs - "Shy to Sure" and "Jade to Sapphire" - won honorable mentions in the 2004 Billboard World songwriting competition. <http://www.mellaniday.com>

What the press is saying about Mellani Day:

"Mellani's sultry voice flows over the jazzy blues rock and Eric Gunnison's lush piano. Lyrically she tells us intimate tales of what's on her mind the night she penned them..."

J-Sin, Editor at Smother.net

"Mellani Day and her Music will seep into your Soul like a good slow wine, and it is, too. This is great slow sensual Blues rock and Listening to her and that Voice just feels right."

- Radio Mike

"The elegance of style and grace prove that Mellani Day is in the game to stay, and she should have no trouble whatever gathering a following."

- Rikks Revues

"Mellani Day is a gifted vocalist with obvious talent..."

- Alain Jezbloski, FreshNewTunes.com
